1. MONSU Caulfield Mentoring & Internship Program

Discussion:

Refer to Item 6. Marketing Officer asks if there are credit points associated with this, and General Manager clarifies that there is not, as it is a pilot program. General Manager further clarifies that this role will be working more with staff than with students, but will be assisting Student Representatives with events and campaigns under the guidance/mentorship of staff. OSS Officer asks if Student Representatives can apply, and General Manager clarifies that the workload may be too high. General Manager further explains that this will be a competitive application process; no specific prerequisites are required, however each job will have a selection criteria, and staff will be in charge of the hiring process.
