Carried

4.2 Update from Fintan

Fintan updated SCSE regarding the sales for Party on the Green. Following the recent concerns surrounding Covid-19, ticket sales dropped off but following increased promotion by reps numbers have now began to bounce back.

Training will be conducted by Fintan, and will focus on engaging with students by generating respectful and inclusive cultures.

Staff have also organised for MONSU's events to be included on the Universities second Orientation Panner

Fintan also advised representatives that during O-fest MONSU Caulfield will be operating a stall, which will require constant presence and clear understanding and communication of MONSU's core messages and businesses. The period of March 16th - March 31st was advised to be especially busy and demanding.

Safe and Sexy Week planning has also been continuing, including now the booking of an International Student focused Sex Ed session.

Fintan outlined what is required of OB's in terms of their deliverance of a Student Experience. Staff, due to the increased workload will find it difficult in assisting deliverance, so it is crucial that OB's make themselves available to translate staff workload into meaningful results by being present, informed, and hands on in supporting staff and engaging students.

4.3 Marketing

Student Council reflected upon their recent posting schedule and the efficacy to which it has been used.
