- 1.1.2. “Constitution” means the MONSU Constitution as amended from time to time;
- 1.1.3. “election form” means any submission by a person seeking to participate in the election that is completed by them and provided to the Returning Officer by email, including but not limited to a nomination form or withdrawal form.
- 1.1.4. “election period” means the period of time between the appointment of a Returning Officer until the deadline for a person to appeal the result of an election as set out in these regulations has elapsed;
- 1.1.6. “electoral roll” means a list of students in accordance with regulation 7 for the purpose of determining the eligibility of students to stand as candidates or vote in an election;
- 1.1.7. “member” has the same meaning as “member” in the Constitution;
- 1.1.8. “student” means any Monash student enrolled in a course at Caulfield or City (Melbourne) Campus and entitled to membership of MONSU;

- 1.1.9. “MONSU” refers to MONSU Caulfield Inc.;
- 1.1.10. “polling period” means period of time that members may cast their vote in accordance with a resolution of the Student Council described in regulation 8.1;
- 1.1.11. “publicity” means any material or information broadcasted or disseminated (other than verbal communication between one person directly to another) that a reasonable person would assume has a purpose of attempting to influence how or whether a member votes in an election;
- 1.1.12. a reference to a time means that time by the Telstra dial-it time service;
- 1.1.13. “campus” means Monash University Caulfield Campus;
- 1.1.14. “ticket” means a group of candidates who have registered to have their names set out on ballot under a common name;
- 1.1.15. “individual candidate” means any candidate not running on a ticket.

2. Authorising Provisions and Application

- 2.1. These regulations are made under clause 24 of the Constitution.
- 2.2. These regulations apply to the conduct of the annual elections as described by Part 8 of the Constitution.
- 2.3. In the event of an inconsistency between these regulations and the Constitution, the latter shall prevail.
- 2.4. In the event of an inconsistency between these regulations and all applicable laws, including but not limited to any public health directions or restrictions issued by Monash University, Victoria’s Chief of Health Officer, or State Government, the latter shall prevail.

3. Appointment of Returning Officer

3.1. The Student Council must appoint a person to act as Returning Officer.

3.2. The Returning Officer must not:

3.2.1. be a member of staff of MONSU; or

3.2.2. have contested a MONSU election in the preceding five calendar years.

3.3. Once appointed, the Returning Officer may only be removed by an absolute majority of the Student Council during an election period on the grounds of proven misbehaviour or incapacity.

3.4. If the Returning Officer, resigns, is removed or dies during an election period, the Student Council must appoint a new Returning Officer as soon as is practical.

4. Responsibilities of Returning Officer

4.1. The Returning Officer:

4.1.1. is responsible for the conduct of the election;

4.1.2. may decide all matters not provided for in the Constitution or these regulations; and

4.1.3. is subject only to the Electoral Tribunal.

4.2. Any decision of the Returning Officer may be appealed to the Electoral Tribunal in accordance with regulation 35.

4.3. The Returning Officer must decide all questions of fact on the balance of probabilities.

4.4. The Returning Officer must present a written report to the Student Council within 30 days of the declaration of results of the election.

4.5. The Secretary or General Manager must provide the facilities, resources, and assistance necessary to enable the Returning Officer to carry out their responsibilities under these regulations.

5. Deputy Returning Officers

5.1. The Returning Officer may appoint and remove Deputy Returning Officers.

5.2. A Deputy Returning Officer must not be appointed if they meet one of the categories set out in regulation 3.2.

5.3. Deputy Returning Officers are subject to the direction of and have the responsibilities determined by the Returning Officer.

5.4. The Returning Officer may delegate any responsibilities and powers under these regulations to a Deputy Returning Officer.

6. Delegation of Responsibilities to Members of MONSU Staff

6.1 The Returning Officer may delegate responsibilities to members of MONSU staff if they relate to the:

6.1.1. receipt of election forms;

6.1.2. displaying or dissemination of any election notices; or

6.1.3. coordination with MONSU or University departments in deciding arrangements for the conduct of the election.

7. The Electoral Roll

7.1. The Returning Officer must obtain from Monash University a list of all Caulfield and City (Melbourne) undergraduate students for the purpose of establishing an Electoral Roll of those eligible to vote and stand in the elections, provided they are members.

8. Polling Dates, Times and Method

8.1. The Student Council must, either concurrently or prior to the appointment of the Returning Officer, set the dates of polling and the times of the polling periods for the election.

8.2. The dates of polling must be:

8.2.1. during the second semester of the University teaching calendar; and 8.2.2. at least three consecutive academic days.

8.3. The times of the polling period must be:

8.3.1. for at least five hours each day.

9. Election Timeline

9.1. Unless otherwise determined by the Returning Officer:

9.1.1. the notice of election must be issued on the Monday four weeks before the election;

9.1.2. nominations must open at 9am on the Wednesday three weeks before the election and close at 5pm on the Tuesday two weeks before the election;

9.1.3. policy statements may be submitted from 9am on the Wednesday three weeks before the election and close at 5pm on the Tuesday two weeks before the election;

9.1.4. submission of statements of distribution of preferences must open at 9am on the Monday the week before the election and close at 5pm on the Friday before the election.

9.1.5. applications for the re-registration of a ticket must open at 9am on the Monday 5 weeks before the election and close at 5pm on the Friday 5 weeks before the election.

9.1.6. applications for the registration of a ticket must open at 9am on the Wednesday 4 weeks before the election and close at 5pm on the Tuesday 3 weeks before the election.

9.2. The Returning Officer may only change the dates and times for matters prescribed in regulation 9.1 if:

9.2.1. the delay of either the appointment of the Returning Officer or the setting of the polling period by the Student Council would mean that the timeline prescribed by this regulation, if adhered to:

9.2.1.1. would cause hardship to potential candidates to participate in the election on the basis of the period of notice provided;

9.2.1.2. would place the ability for the Returning Officer to properly conduct the election in jeopardy; or

9.2.1.3. is impossible to abide by on the basis that the date has already occurred; or

9.2.2. factors other than those related to the proper conduct of the Returning Officer, including but not limited to:

9.2.2.1. delays associated with being provided with either of the Electoral Rolls;

9.2.2.2. errors (including the failure to act) made by University or MONSU staff in the course of their conduct related to the administration of election; or 9.2.2.3. an otherwise unforeseen act not contemplated to occur during the election period that would make adhering to the timeline prescribed by this regulation either impossible or, in the view of the Returning Officer, result in the election being improperly conducted.

10. Forms

10.1. Where a form may be completed by participants in the election, it must be:

10.1.1. made available on the MONSU website; and

10.1.2. available from the Returning Officer upon email request.

10.2. Where a form may be submitted to the Returning Officer, it may be:

10.2.1. submitted directly to the Returning Officer in electronic form by email.

11. Notice of Election

11.1. The Returning Officer must give notice of the election by:

11.1.1. publishing a notice in any MONSU publication where possible; and 11.1.2. publishing a notice on the MONSU website.

11.2. In addition to regulation 11.1 the Returning Officer may also give notice of the election by causing an email to be sent to each student eligible to vote and stand in the election.

12. Eligibility to Stand

12.1. All members shall be eligible to stand in an election, subject to clauses 34 and 35 of the Constitution and this regulation 12.

12.2. Only members who indicate they identify as a woman on their nomination form shall be eligible to stand for Women's Officer.

12.3. Only members who indicate they identify as queer on their nomination form shall be eligible to stand for Queer Officer.

12.4. Only members who indicate they identify as a person of colour on their nomination form shall be eligible to stand for Person of Colour Officer.

12.5. If the University makes provision for the President to be an enrolled student of the university by virtue of holding this position and without being required to undertake studies, but subject to the statutes and regulations of the University, the President must be an enrolled student of the University.

12.6. From the opening of nominations until the close of nominations, a student can request that the Returning Officer check the Electoral Roll to determine if they are eligible to stand in elections.

12.7. The Returning Officer is required to give written confirmation of a student's eligibility status within 48 hours or as is reasonably practicable of the student contacting them with a valid request.

12.8. A request is valid only if:

12.8.1. the student requests the Returning Officer check their own eligibility to stand and no other student's eligibility to stand;

12.8.2. the student provides their student number; and 12.8.3. the request is made via email.

12.9 If the request is made via email the student must use their university student email account.

13. Nominations

13.1. Nominations must:

13.1.1. contain the full name, student number, email address and contact phone number of the candidate;

13.1.2. be nominated by another student; and 13.1.3. be seconded by another student.

13.2. For the purpose of regulations 13.1.2 and 13.1.3:

13.2.1. no student may nominate more than one candidate nominating for each individual position; and 13.2.2. no student may second more than one candidate nominating for each individual position.

13.3. As soon as practicable after receiving a nomination, the Returning Officer must:

13.3.1. verify that the person who has nominated is eligible to stand;

13.3.2. notify that person whether their nomination has been accepted or rejected; and

13.3.3. send them:

13.3.3.1. a copy of these regulations; and

13.3.3.2. the contact details for the Returning Officer.

13.4. The Returning Officer must reject nominations:

13.4.1. that do not comply with these regulations; or 13.4.2. where the person nominating is not eligible to stand for that position.

13.5. If the Returning Officer rejects the nomination, they must:

13.5.1. inform the candidate as soon as practicable; and 13.5.2. provide the reason for the rejection.

14. Uncontested Positions

14.1. If the number of eligible candidates for any position does not exceed the number to be elected, the Returning Officer must declare, as soon as practicable after the close of nominations, those candidates elected.

15. Ballot Draw

15.1. The Returning Officer must determine the order of candidates on the ballot paper as soon as practicable after nominations have closed and all candidates have been determined eligible to stand in the election.

15.2. Any student member may observe the draw.

15.3. The Returning Officer must:

15.3.1. email all candidates; and

15.3.2. cause a notice to be published on the MONSU website

15.3.3. stating when, where and how the draw will take place.

15.4. The ballot draw may be conducted by any method that makes a random selection, including an electronic pseudorandom number generator.

15.5. The ballot draw may be conducted by way of an online broadcast, so long as the details of the draw are communicated in accordance with regulation 15.3.

16. Withdrawal of Nomination

16.1. Candidates may withdraw their nomination at any time before the close of polling.

16.2. The withdrawal takes effect on its acceptance by the Returning Officer.

16.3. If a candidate withdraws, the Returning Officer must proceed as if the candidate had never nominated (except any statement of distribution of preferences under regulation 19 lodged by the candidate remains valid).

16.4. If a candidate withdraws, the Returning Officer may modify ballot papers as necessary or appropriate.

17. Publication of List of Nominations Received

17.1 Within twenty-four hours after the close of nominations, the Returning Officer must make available a notice that lists the submissions received for each respective period.

17.2 The list of submissions must include any unsuccessful submissions, and the reason for the unsuccessful submission.

17.3. For the purpose of regulation 17.1, make available may include:

17.3.1 emailing the notice to candidates; and

17.3.2 causing the notice to be published on the MONSU website.

18. Tickets

18.1. Any student may apply to have a ticket name registered or re-registered if:

18.1.1. they have found at least 30 students who support the registration or re-registration of the ticket; and

18.1.2. the student has submitted the names, signatures and student numbers of those students before the deadline to submit a registration or re-registration of a ticket name

18.2. A student may only be a signatory to 1 ticket registration or re-registration.

18.3. A ticket name may only be registered if:

18.3.1. it is not misleading or deceptive

18.3.2. it is not contrary to law;

18.3.3. it is not racist, sexist, queerphobic, ableist or militaristic;

18.3.4. it does not contain the name of an organisation (including a club or society affiliated with MONSU) or is not so similar to the name of any department or division of MONSU or department or division of the University as to be confused with or mistaken for that name;

18.3.5. it is not the same as or does not incorporate another registered ticket name, or is not too similar to another registered ticket name as to be confused with or mistaken for that name;

18.3.6. it does not contain the word 'independent';

18.3.7. it does not contain the name of any person, or is not so similar to the name of any person as to be confused with or mistaken for, or be reasonably associated with, that person

18.3.8. it is no longer than four words

18.3. The student who registers the ticket name is the initial authorised officer.

18.3.1 The authorised officer of a ticket name remains the authorised officer unless:

18.3.1.1. they nominate another student to be the authorised officer via application to the Returning Officer; or 18.3.1.2. the ticket is re-registered with a different authorised officer.

18.4. A student cannot be an authorised officer for more than one ticket and may not be a signatory to any ticket apart from the ticket of which they are the authorised officer.

18.4.1. If it is found that a student has been an authorised officer for more than 1 ticket, or is a signatory of any ticket other than the ticket of which they are the authorised officer, then that student cannot be an authorised officer for any of the tickets and all the tickets the student has registered as an authorised officer for will lapse.

18.5. A ticket name remains registered until:

18.5.1. the authorised officer requests that ticket name to be de-registered; or 18.5.2. the ticket name lapses because it has not been reregistered during the following year's re-registration period.

18.6. Tickets may only submit one nomination per individual position to be elected.

18.7. By 5pm on the Monday 4 weeks before the election, the Returning Officer must publish a list of all re-registered ticket names on the MONSU Caulfield website.

18.8. By 5pm on the Tuesday 3 weeks before the election, the Returning Officer must publish a list of all registered ticket names on the MONSU Caulfield website.

19. Statement of Distribution of Preferences

19.1. An individual candidate may submit a statement of distribution of preferences.

19.2. A ticket may submit a statement setting out the order in which preferences are to be distributed after being distributed to the ticket in accordance with regulation 27.6.

19.3. The Returning Officer must electronically display the completed statements on the MONSU website as soon as is reasonably possible before the annual election.

20. Publicity

20.1. This regulation applies for all publicity made available during the election period which can only be published electronically.

20.2. All publicity made by tickets or individual candidates must be submitted electronically ~~by a student~~ for written authorisation by the Returning Officer before it is made available to students electronically, it must state:

20.2.1. ~~the name and student ID of the member authorising the publicity~~ include the words "Authorised by" and the name of the Authorised Officer of the ticket that candidate is running under or the name of the individual candidate; and

20.2.2. include the words “Authorised by the Returning Officer”

20.3. The Returning Officer must not authorise any publicity that is:

20.3.1. offensive or derogatory;

20.3.2. misleading or deceptive;

20.3.3. branded similarly to MONSU.

20.3.4. any publicity that uses any part of the MONSU logo shall be considered to be branded similarly to MONSU.

20.3.5. any publicity that is to be distributed physically

20.4. If a Returning Officer becomes aware that they have authorised publicity in breach of regulation 20.3:

20.4.1. they must revoke the authorisation by contacting the Authorised Officer of a ticket or individual candidate who requested authorisation for the publicity; and 20.4.2. the Authorised Officer of a ticket or individual candidate must cease making that publicity.

20.5. All publicity must not be made available prior to the close of nominations.

20.6. Electronic communication on social media is limited to comments, statuses and other like forms of communication being made on one page, profile, or other group established by tickets or individual candidates with the explicit purpose of promoting that ticket or individual candidate

20.7. Candidates making use of social media platforms for the purpose of the election must provide the Returning Officer the URL of each social media page and profile established for the purposes of promoting candidates prior to its use for publicity.

20.8. For the avoidance of doubt, regulations 20.6 and 20.7 do not apply to personal social networking profiles in the name of candidates where such communication has occurred within the confines of the profile itself.

20.9. Publicity must not include or otherwise involve:

20.9.1. badges;

20.9.2. stickers;

20.9.3. balloons;

20.9.4. live music;

21. Defamation

21.1. Neither MONSU or the Returning Officer indemnifies any person against liability for defamation in an election.

22. Publicity by MONSU Publications

22.1 Any MONSU publication (including Esperanto or other publication produced by MONSU from time to time) must not, from the opening of nominations to the end of polling:

22.1.1 advantage one or more candidate(s) and/or ticket(s);

22.1.2 disadvantage one or more candidate(s) and/or ticket(s);

22.1.3 contain any misleading or deceptive information about the election or any candidate(s) and/or ticket(s) involved in the election;

22.1.4 contain anything prohibited under regulation 32; and

22.1.5 be in contravention of regulation 20.

22.2 Any MONSU publication published from the opening of nominations to the end of polling must be reviewed by the Returning Officer before being made available to students.

22.3 If the Returning Officer determines that a MONSU publication is in breach of the regulations 22.1, the Returning Officer must ban the MONSU publication from being made available to students until the end of polling. If the MONSU publication has already been made available to students, the Returning Officer must ban the MONSU publication from circulation until the end of polling.

22.4 The Returning Officer must be given at least 48 hours to review any MONSU publication as required by regulation 22.2, before it is made available to students.

22.5 If the persons responsible for producing the MONSU publication fail to give the Returning Officer at least 48 hours to review any MONSU publication, the Returning Officer must ban the publication from being made available to students until the end of polling. If the MONSU publication has already been made available to students without the Returning Officer being given at least 48 hours to check it, the Returning Officer must ban the publication from circulation until the end of polling.

23. Policy Statements

23.1. Candidates may submit policy statements electronically during the time period specified in regulation 9.1.3.

23.2. Policy statements may contain:

23.2.1. text of no more than 200 words; and

23.2.2. a photograph of the candidate.

23.3. All policy statements must be submitted electronically to the Returning Officer and comply with any additional requirements determined by the Returning Officer.

23.4. The Returning Officer must publish an electronic election guide, containing all of the statements submitted in accordance with this regulation.

23.5. The election guide must be made available electronically on the MONSU website.

24. Form of Ballot Paper

24.1. The ballot paper must provide an option to vote on the cover page for tickets, and an option to vote for individual candidates.

24.2. The cover page of the booklet must;

24.2.1. list each ticket which has nominated at least 6 unique candidates;

24.2.2. provide instructions that give effect to the method of casting a candidate vote at regulation 27.2.1; and

24.2.3. make provisions for members to indicate they identify as:

24.2.3.1. a woman;

24.2.3.2. a queer student;

24.2.3.3. a person of colour;

for the purposes of regulation 25.

24.3. For the individual candidate option:

24.3.1. a page must be contained in the electronic ballot booklet for that position;

24.3.2. the electronic page must list the candidates for that position (and ticket if applicable); and

24.3.3. the electronic page must contain instructions that give effect to the method of counting candidate votes at regulation 27.2.2.

24.4. The electronic ballot paper for the Queer Officers must have in writing either above or below the ballot “Please only vote in this ballot if you identify as queer.”

24.5. The electronic ballot paper for the Women’s Officer must have in writing either above or below the ballot “Please only vote in this ballot if you identify as a woman.”

24.6. The electronic ballot paper for the People of Colour Officer must have in writing either above or below the ballot “Please only vote in this ballot if you identify as a Person of Colour.”

24.7. For the avoidance of doubt, the Activities Officers shall be listed as separate single-member positions.

24.8. For the avoidance of doubt, the Queer Officers shall be listed as separate single-member positions.

25. Eligibility to Vote

25.1. All members shall be eligible to vote

25.2. Only members that identify as queer shall be eligible to vote for Queer Officers.

25.3. Only members that identify as a woman shall only be eligible to vote for Women’s Officer.

25.4. Only members that identify as a person of colour shall be eligible to vote for People of Colour Officer.

26. Accessing Ballot Papers

26.1. All voting must be conducted by digital ballot sent by the Returning Officer to the student email of all undergraduate students enrolled in a course at Monash University Caulfield Campus or Monash University City (Melbourne) Campus via Monash University bulk email facilities.

26.2. The Returning Officer must include within the digital ballot the ability for students to sign up as a member of MONSU.

27. Method of Voting

27.1. Elections must use the optional preferential proportional representation method of election.

27.2. A voter must indicate their order of preference for candidates by either:

27.2.1. placing the number 1 against the name of a ticket on the cover page; or

27.2.2. placing the number 1 against the name of the candidate of first preference and consecutive higher numbers against the names of as many other candidates of lower preference in order as they wish

27.3. For the purposes of regulation 27.2:

27.3.1. a number against the name of a individual candidate and/or ticket indicates a preference for that individual candidate and/or ticket ahead of all individual candidates and/or tickets with higher numbers or no number against their name; and

27.3.2. a vote is formal even if:

27.3.2.1. the lowest number is not 1;

27.3.2.2. the numbers are not consecutive or;

27.3.2.3. numbers are repeated.

27.3.2.4. a vote is deemed formal until the voter's intention becomes unclear;

27.3.2.5. a cross against the name of an individual candidate and/or ticket where there is no number 1 or tick against the name of another individual candidate and/or ticket is to be taken to be the number 1;

26.3.2.6. a tick against the name of an individual candidate and/or ticket where there is no number 1 against the name of another individual candidate and/or ticket is to be take to be the number 1; and

27.3.2.7. a letter against the name of an individual candidate and/or ticket indicates a preference for that individual candidate and/or ticket ahead of all individual candidates and/or tickets with alphabetically subsequent letters or no letter against their name.

28. Counting of Votes

28.1. The Returning Officer must start counting immediately after the close of polling.

28.2. The Returning Officer is the only person who may be present during counting.

28.3. The Returning Officer must email all candidates and provide the time the electronic vote counting will be complete.

29. Method of Counting

29.1. Votes must be counted in accordance with the following procedure:

29.1.1. each ballot paper must first be given the value of 1;

29.1.2. the value of each ballot paper must be allocated to the continuing candidate against whose name appears the lowest number on the ballot paper;

29.1.3. a ballot paper which does not show a valid preference for at least one continuing candidate is exhausted and may not be allocated further;

29.1.4. a quota must be calculated at each stage of counting by dividing the total value of ballot papers allocated to continuing candidates by one more than the number of positions remaining to be filled and rounding up the answer so obtained in the sixth decimal place;

29.1.5. if at any stage of counting a continuing candidate is allocated a value in excess of the quota; that candidate must be declared elected and each ballot paper allocated to that candidate must be given a new value obtained by multiplying its current value by the candidate's transfer value; and

29.1.6. if at any stage of counting no continuing candidate is allocated a value in excess of the quota, the candidate with the lowest value must be eliminated. If there are two or more candidates with an equal value and no candidate has a lower value at an earlier stage of counting, the Returning Officer must determine by lot which of these candidates is to be eliminated.

29.2. The procedure in this regulation must be repeated in order until the number of positions to be filled is filled.

29.3. Informal votes:

29.3.1. may only be ruled informal by the Returning Officer; and

29.3.2. must only be ruled informal if:

29.3.2.1. it does not comply with regulation 27.2 – 27.3;
and 29.3.2.2. the voter's intention is not clear.

29.4. In this regulation:

29.4.1. “continuing candidate” means a candidate who has neither been elected nor eliminated;

29.4.2. “stage of counting” means when all ballot papers which have not been exhausted have been allocated to continuing candidates; and

29.4.3. “candidate’s transfer value” is the elected candidate’s value, less the quota at that stage of counting, all divided by the elected candidate’s value.

30. Declaration of Election and Notification of Results

30.1. The Returning Officer must announce the provisionally declared result of the election immediately after counting.

30.2. As soon as is practicable after the results are provisionally declared, the Returning Officer must:

30.2.1. cause a notice of results to be posted on the MONSU website; and 30.2.2. email all candidates the notice of results.

30.3. The result of the election shall be automatically formally declared in accordance with the provisional declaration (or a subsequent declaration following a recount, if applicable) if:

30.3.1. the deadline for appeals against the result in accordance with regulation 36.1 passes and no appeal is submitted; or 30.3.2. any appeals against the result of the election in accordance with regulation 36 are dismissed by the Election Tribunal.

31. Recounts

31.1. A member may lodge a written request with the Returning Officer for a recount of an election they are a candidate in within 24 hours after the election has been provisionally declared.

31.2. If the Returning Officer receives a written request for a recount in accordance with regulation 31.1, they must hold a recount as soon as practicable.

31.3. The Returning Officer must give at least 24 hours written notice of a recount to all of the candidates involved in that election.

31.4. Once a recount has been held and the election is declared, no candidate can call for any further recounts of that election.

32. Prohibited Conduct

32.1. This regulation applies during the election period.

32.2. Any dishonest conduct in an election is prohibited.

32.3. Any conduct in an election that is misleading or deceptive, or that is likely to mislead or deceive a voter is prohibited.

32.4. Any conduct that is violent, abusive or threatening is prohibited.

32.5. Without limiting regulations 32.2 – 32.4, the following are specifically prohibited:

32.5.1. providing false information in or interfering with any form lodged with the Returning Officer;

32.5.2. failing to comply with a direction of the Returning Officer, or a decision of the Electoral Tribunal;
